Erik Lowrance

1615 W Evans Dr. Phoenix, AZ 85023
Phone: 480-751-5664   E-Mail: eriklowrance@gmail.com

Professional Summary

- Successful Programmer with exceptional talents in [Type of Skill] and [Type of Skill]. Reliable and a hard worker. Pursuing a new position where an understanding of the [Type of Industry] will be widely appreciated.

- Forward-thinking Software Engineer with background working effectively in dynamic environments. Fluent in [Type] and [Type] programming languages used to develop [Software]. Proud team player focused on achieving project objectives with speed and accuracy.

Skills

- Focus
- Leadership skills
- Time management
- [Programming language] proficiency
- Data visualizations
- Usability understanding
- [Software] expertise
- Testing and debugging
- API design knowledge

Work History

Hillside Spot, Ahwatukee   August 2011-June 2020

- Liquor and food handling certified.
- Developed strong communication skills with customers as well as leadership skills with fellow employees.
- Skilled in opening and closing duties.
- Always run my own food to ensure accuracy and quality of food sent out.
- Collected credit card, cash and gift certificate payments and dispensed change for cash transactions.
- Created orders, documented special requests and followed up with kitchen personnel to foster top-quality service and minimize complaints.
- Maintained customer satisfaction with timely table check-ins to assess food and beverage needs.

Education

- University of Arizona – History, 2008-2010

- University of Arizona – Coding Bootcamp, 2020-2021